

Water Quality: Public/Private Water Management

Water management is the practices of planning, developing, distribution and optimum utilizing of water resources under defined water polices and regulations. It may mean: management of water treatment of drinking water, industrial water, sewage or wastewater; management of water resources; management of flood protection; management of Irrigation.